

5. Mode of Public Participation

The Institute encourages public participation and guidance through members representing them in the Board of Governors.